

An Oceanic Feast Celebrating Australian Seafood
As part of the 2009 Sydney International Food Festival
Presented by Tom Kime and finefish at the Paddington Town Hall

Friday 30th October 2009 7.00 pm

A Gastronomic journey hosted by award winning chef Tom Kime, and Top Sydney seafood retailer finefish.

For seafood lovers everywhere, an evening of six delicious courses, matched with specialist wines.

All guests will receive a signed copy of one of Tom's acclaimed books.

10% of the price will be donated to World Youth International and Breast Cancer Foundation

Cost $220 includes champagne, wine and a signed book

Receive a 10% discount for a table of ten people

“The name on everybody’s lips is Tom Kime whose super clever creations are wowing diners from all over town.
Expect delicious things” Food and Drink Magazine

“Paul’s adventurous and ambitious cooking at finefish respects the sensational seafood as the star.”
Helen Greenwood Spectrum July 2009

“Tom uses the ingredients much like an artist would use his paint, to create a piece of gastronomic art”.
In London Magazine

Tom has been writing for Delicious magazine, has written five books and appears regularly on Ready Steady Cook in Australia,
Market Kitchen and with Rick Stein for the BBC

Bookings and enquiries call Tom Kime Tel 0432 366 339 tom@tomkimechef.com

Tickets available from www.tomkimechef.com BSB 082 360 Ac 85640 6569 or

Finefish, www.finefish.com.au 75 Grosvenor Lane, Neutral Bay, 2089

Full payment is required to confirm place.

A full cancellation cost will be charged if you have confirmed your place and don’t attend.

finefish
wetfishcookedfishservedfish

www.tomkimechef.com